Is Everything Nothing

I miss my friends but I guess that's how it goes. I miss my family but I'll see them on the holidays. I miss everything, I want everything.

Could it be that I'm not the one to blame? Could it be my letters showed my shame to them?

I never wanted to lose anyone from my life.
I never wanted to bother anyone.
Never thought I'd be this alive this time alone this time alone

the world doesn't know me, my friends a different story but I swear to god I've tried more than them to miss everything, like having nothing.

Could it be that I'm not the one to blame? Could it be letters don't show my face anymore?

I never wanted to lose anyone from my life,
I never wanted to bother anyone,
never thought I'd be this alive this time alone.
this time alone
this time alone

I miss everything, I want everything. I miss nothing, I want everything. I miss everything, I want nothing.
